

U.S. Pro Tri Team races spectacularly throughout the country

July 2009 – Members of the U.S. Professional Triathlon Team, sponsored by Limar helmets and Selle Italia saddles, performed impressively this month in events throughout the country.

Twenty-five professional racers from all over the world competed at New York's Ironman Lake Placid. Remarkably, in his very first Ironman event, Mike Caiazzo was the first American to cross the finish line, coming in fourth overall!

In regional races, Caiazzo and Ryan Bates took first and second places respectively in Indiana's Muncie Endurathon; Bates won Ohio's Columbus International Triathlon; John Kenny and David Silver took first and second places respectively in New Jersey's Metroman Triathlon; Kenny won New Jersey's Uberman Triathlon; Kevin Lisska placed second at North Carolina's Lake Wylie Triathlon; and Chris Tremonte won Washington State's Seafair Triathlon. Dereck Treadwell and Lisska also raced well in Rhode Island's Amica Ironman 70.3 Triathlon.

Next month, the team plans to race in Michigan's 2009 Whirlpool Ironman 70.3 Steelhead Triathlon and West Virginia's Spirit of Morgantown Half Distance Triathlon.
